Boomers are going off to work at a time when their parent's generation went off to the sidelines. It is a new reality for American Retirees.

FlexHourJobs.com suggests considering whether part time or full time employment will suit your needs. Do the opportunities you want require additional training? If you are already employed, try to persuade your employer that you're indispensable, while looking for ways to make an impact on a reduced or flexible schedule. Other considerations might be job sharing, freelance work, fulltime flex hours, or telecommuting.

Retirement Jobs are no longer about working at the hardware store or the local shuttle bus service. There are a huge range of professional careers that look to utilize the skills that people have acquired in their careers as engineers, executives, lawyers or accountants. An increasing number of employers are sprucing up benefits such as flexible work schedules in order to retain skilled older workers. Offering the ability to work from home, perhaps not fulltime, provide flexibility in start/end times or perhaps seasonal or temporary work helps to retain talented workers.

FlexHourJobs.com offers Flex Hour and Work from Home Job opportunities in over 50 different categories, including administrative, accounting, communications, marketing, engineering, event planning, consulting, customer service, culinary arts, general business among others. Entry level, Junior and Executive jobs are all available, giving retirees the option of continuing work in their career field or trying something new.

FlexHourJobs.com was founded by Jacqueline Sloboda, the daughter of a 65 year old who was forced into retirement. The website offers flexible hour jobs screened for legitimacy nationwide that are easily accessible in one location. It is a member of the International Association of Employment Websites. For more information or to search the site for flexible job opportunities, visit <http://www.FlexHourJobs.com>, follow them on Facebook (<http://www.Facebook.com/FlexHourJobs>) or Twitter (<http://www.Twitter.com/FlexHourJobs>). Email inquiries to: Info@FlexHourJobs.com. Subscriptions are free and a service to getting Americans back to Work!
